II

I Brian Lee Danner, make this declaration in support of "Extension of Bar Date" and to better explain reasons for delay in Filing.

FOR LEGAL USE ONLY

1. Creditor has been incarcerated since May of 2020. This Contributed to the delay in Filing.
2. The Spokane county Jail Controls Creditors ability to gather information incoming and all movement, this contributed to the delay.
3. March of 2020 the Spokane County Jail went on Lock down to prevent the spread of covid 19 Halting any ability I had to communicate with the outside world. This Contributed to the delay also.
4. As soon as creditor was able to he wrote to Purdue Pharma claims for claim forms via mail on or about September 2020. This contributed to my delay.
5. Request for claim Forms were recieved by the Prison Clerk For Legal Use Only on or about October 2020
6. At the Same time of Creditors attempt to file claims the United States Postal Service was slowed due to lack of financial monies. This was out of my control and Contributed to the delay.

7. Covid-19 hit the United States and the Country went on lock down halting the Country and placing me into even more isolation and lock down, this stopped all communications and all interactions with those from the outside world, this was an act of GOD and out of my control and contributed greatly to my ability to file timely.

8. My claims where filed on October 30th 2020

9. Once I became aware of possible error in my filing I filed motion for "Acceptance of claim filed after bar date."

10. I did NOT find out about Bar Date until after claim was filed this contributed to my delay.

III

The Creditor wishes to better Clarify for this Great Court of his inability to gather information and relies on third Parties for information about the ongoings in the outside world and or society

in general.

Creditor also wants to make sure the court has a good understanding that the Spokane County Jail in Spokane, Washington will "NOT" Provide Pro-se Creditor with the means to attend the telephonic Hearing Scheduled for April 21st, 2021
at 10:00 a.m. (Eastern Time.).

Creditor has Filed Previous Motions
and included the Jail Sergeants responses to Creditors request.

Creditor apologizes for this inconvenience and request this court to use this Declaration to make an informative decision in regards to his request for "Acceptance of Claims filed after Bar Date"

For Legal Use Only

I, Brian Lee Danner, declare under the Penalty of Perjury under the laws
